“ Jack was my dear husband Wally Brown's life - long friend. Even though Wally and his family moved to Western New York in 1976, Wally and Jack remained close through family visits to Alton. Wally and I married in 1991, and visited Alton often to visit family and Jack. Countless rounds of golf, Cardinal games and beers at Tony's are memories I will cherish. Wally passed in 2018, and no doubt has welcomed his friend at the 1st tee. Rest in peace, Jack, we both loved you!

Deepest sympathy to the Dixon family on the passing of Jack. We grew up in the same neighborhood and played on the same grade school football team. Fond memories. May he rest in peace.
