“ I only knew John for a couple of years. We were neighbors. And if I was to have a choice of neighbors he would be my first choice. He was a very nice and respectful man. My daughter gets excited when the warm weather comes cause she knows John will be out back and he was always gracious enough to indulge her chattiness. He would always take time to listen and never showed signs of boredom. He was the kind of neighbor you knew would be there if you ever needed anything. John was the type of person that would give you the shirt off his back if thats what you needed. We will miss you John. Rest in peace friend.
