“ Dear Sue and family,

I'm in Georgia with my grandsons, but I wanted to take this time to send you a message of my deepest sympathy. Losing parents is hard under any circumstances, but losing them so close together is especially hard. It would seem that they just didn't want to be apart for any length of time and your Dad (and Mom) give you comfort and peace now and in the days to come.

Blessings,

Glenda and Keith McKee

“ I'm sorry--my earlier message deleted a couple of lines -- "and now they are together again in their Heavenly home. May sweet memories of"

“ To all of the Kozonasky family, we are sorry for the loss of both of your parents just days apart. They didn't have to feel the pain of separation, and that is a blessing. God bless you all in these difficult days.

“ Dear Sue and Wes,

I am so sorry about your Father's passing, especially so close to your Mother's. My first memory of your Dad was the day Jackie and I met with the Trustees to discuss "stuff". We saw you at The Village as we were eating breakfast before the meeting. I remember you (Sue) telling me your Dad's "bark is bigger than his bite." Thanks for the warning! I have fond memories of visiting them in their home, especially at Christmastime. May God grant you His peace as you grieve the loss of your parents.

In His Love
