“ I lost track of Joe over the years since they closed the Mold Shop, but as my golf partner and good friend, I still had Joe in my thoughts often, with fond memories.

“ Joe and I were close friends during high school. We lost track of one another after Joe left for college. Two years ago I made an effort to find Joe without success (sort of). I wish that we could have enjoyed some time together. My best wishes and condolences go to his family and friends.
