“ There are so many... I wouldn't be who I am today without Josh.. So a memory? Hiking in the summertime in pere Marquette Park. He loved loved loved hiking back then. We ended up getting chased by some killer bees and ran for like 10 minutes straight cracking up. Josh was so youthful all the time. He helped me love life back then..

There were many nights I remember jamming out with hand drums to the wee hours of the morning. I am so sad to hear Josh is gone. He had this uncanny ability to always make you smile and big in the world around him. He would have given me the coat off his back if I asked. He had such a sweet spirit! This world has real loss without him!
