“PEACEFUL WATERS CAMP

*We struggle here with many a tear.
Life puts us to the test.
But we bravely face what must take place
And do what seems the best.*

*When storms spread fear and waves rose near
Christ calmed that raging swill.
Whate'er betide He stands beside
And whispers, "Peace, be still."*

*It breaks our heart to have to part
Even if, for him, it's release.
When God says "Come - on into Home
For joy and bliss and peace."*

*There is a time in peace sublime
When we shall be at rest.
There is a place by God's dear face
We camp with all the blessed.*
