“ I knew him as Hootie. Didn't even know his name was Keith for two years after I met him. He and my partner at the time were best friends. Hoodie hunted my property for several years, and I considered him a good friend. Rest in peace friend. I hope you and Bob are having a wonderful reunion in Heaven.

“ Keith and I met on my sister and brother in laws farm where he worked and I lived. It was the Carrico farm. We were just kids. He was cute and sweet. we went out on a date but I eventually moved to California and we lost touch. I was too backwards to even carry on a good conversation but he was very nice and I am so terribly sorry he is gone now. He is with The Lord and happy !

“ I am so sorry to hear that Keith has passed on. He was a groomsman when Chester and I got married at State Street Baptist Church Jan. 28, 1971. His dad performed the service for us. God give all of you comfort. Mary Jane Miller Keene.
