“ So many memories of Keith & Kevin, and his family. It seems like just yesterday we were swinging in the back yard, watching those 70's cartoons, sledding down the sidewalk hills, playing ball in the middle of the street, selling TV Guides, Rolling our eyes at a sister who never got enough of Elvis. I remember the day his older brother put siding on their house. It was an asbestos brick pattern. Probably why the house was torn down years later. Sadly I moved away, but those memories never died! I hope we meet again one day my friend. My deepest condolences to his family!
