“ Deepest sympathies over the loss of your loved one. While a few words offer peace during a difficult time, Perhaps the words expressed at Revelation 21:3,4 provide you with both comfort and hope along with the realization that soon tragedies such as this will one day be a thing of the past.

“ Pam and Jim,

Words can not explain how my heart aches for you. I can not begin to fathom what you are going through but I want to express my sympathy and the compassion I have for you both at this time. I do not know what your religious beliefs are but God is a God of all. He will take care of Kyle and he will take care of you. Please lean on him for the strength you need to understand and cope with this terrible loss. I do not know what Kyle was going through nor do I judge. I do know that God understands and will take Kyle in his arms and make him whole. May God bless you and keep you until we are all together again.
