“ Just a note telling you all how sorry we are to here of Lauretta's passing. We treasure the times we have spent at Optimist functions and watching as our children have grown.

She will be greatly missed and we are sorry we are not able to be ther for your this evening. But our thoughts and prayers will be.

When my great grandmother passed away, the following poem was found in her bible. The words are simple, but I like to share them with friends in the time of thoughts and prayers.

The Weaver

*My Life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.*

*Oft times He weaveth sorrow
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.*

*Not til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.*

*He knows, He loves, He cares,
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those*

Who leave the choice with Him.

Your in our thoughts and prayers.

“ So sad to hear of Laurretta's passing. I have missed her presence at Jet for quite some time. Her role always surpassed that of "Senior Travel Coordinator". God will welcome her and give your family comfort.

“ *Dear Alan and family:
I was shocked to hear of the passing of Laretta but knowing her she fought her battle with cancer with great spirit! Just a blink of an eye ago all of us were in high school and then making trips to the Spaghetti Factory years later. I know Laretta's in a wonderful place now with no suffering and I'm sure that John is showing her around :) You are in my prayers, always. "Charlie"*
