“ I have many memories of Aunt Laverne that bring a smile to me. Like driving Aunt Laverne to collect money from customers for the trash collections which took most of the day as your mom liked to talk to the people. Also one time your mom and I did a number on a big jar of home made pickled pigs feet. We would have eaten the whole thing but Grandma Wunderlich asked us to leave some in the jar. RIP Aunt Laverne!

“ Dear LaVerne, I will miss sitting with you. I loved the way you would "fake" sleep when it was time to exercise. You always spoke your mind and I admire you for that. You raised wonderful, caring kids. The last time I was visiting, you reminded me how cute Tom was. Sleep in Heavenly Peace. Love, Liz
