“ My big sister, you were a great big sister who had a heart of gold. Your heart was filled with so much love and this world will sorely miss all you had to offer. Even when we were kids you were always looking after me by taking my vegetables off my plate and throwing them in the garbage since our parents had a rule that we had to eat everything that was put on the dinner table. You save me some long evenings at the dinner table. I will cherish our telephone conversations that we have had over that past couple of years. One day we will reunite in Heaven and will be able to spend eternity together with are Lord and Savior. Not only were you a great sister, you were a great mom and friend to a lot of people. So many people loved you and will miss you, but we do have our wonderful memories of you to help us get through this. I love you sis and I will always be your loving "little brother." Timothy Bell or Timmy as my sister like to call me.

“ I graduated high school with Lesa. Lesa was a fun loving lady. Looking back I don't ever remember her having a bad day. We connected via Facebook over the last couple of years and Lesa spoke of her family often. Lesa loved her family and friends and especially Liam.

RIP Lesa, you are their angel now. Keep them safe.

“ RIP MY SISTER LESA MAY YOU BE AT PEACE NO MORE PAIN. I WILL REMEMBER THE HAPPY TIMES . WHEN MATT WAS A BABY AND YOU LIVED WITH MOM AND DAD AND WHEN KEVIN WAS YOUNGER TOO. NOW THEY ARE ALL GROWN UP NOW AND YOU WERE TAKEN AWAY SO SOON IN LIFE. I WISH THINGS WERE DIFFERENT TOO LATE TO CHANGE THE PAST BUT I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THE GOOD TIMES. I LOVE YOU SAYING PRAYERS. RIP.
