

Elizabeth A. Fryman-Chapman

December 3, 1964 - January 16, 2024

Dateline: Jerseyville

Lizabeth A. Fryman-Chapman, 59, of Jerseyville IL, born Thursday, December 3, 1964 in Alton IL, passed away on Tuesday, January 16, 2024 in Jerseyville IL.

As a teenager, Liz helped her mother in her family-owned catering business in the early 1980s. She enjoyed it so much she decided to follow in her mother's footsteps opening her own catering business in the early 2000s with great success. Liz showed her unique creativity in everything she did be it her artwork, love of guitar and music, cooking skills in her catering business, or helping her granddaughter, Ava, who she loved dearly, win first prize in Ava's school science project. Together they created a club called Forget-Me-Nots encouraging people to visit family and friends living in nursing homes. Liz was a strong, single mother who worked hard and always made time for others. She will always be remembered for her great laugh, telling corny jokes, loving hugs, and her kind sweet nature.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Virgil and Joan (nee Moyer) Fryman. Surviving is her daughter, Morgan (Rocky) Bantz of Alton IL; a granddaughter Ava Walker of Alton IL; grandson Rocky Bantz Jr. of Alton IL; brother Michael (Sandy) Fryman of Ballwin, MO; sister Laura (Charlie) Rogers of Jerseyville, IL; brother Mitchell (Susan) Fryman of Troy, IL; and brother Murray (Jeanne) Fryman of Scottsdale, AZ.

A special thanks to Troy Dugger for being such a beloved friend and caregiver.

Visitation for Liz will be from 11:00 a.m. until time of funeral service at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, January 22, 2024 at Gent Funeral Home, Alton, IL. Pastor Dave Anderson will officiate. Burial will be at Valhalla Memorial Park in Godfrey, IL. Memorials may be made to the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation. Online guestbook and information may be found at www.gentfuneralhome.com

“ I knew Liz from High School we were very good friends, we took Commercial Art together at JB Johnson center, I remember her driving her moms van back and forth to get us there. We spent many weekends together at her house or mine. I have so many fond memories of Liz, her beautiful smile, and her laugh that was like no other you’ve ever heard, she was a ray of sunshine. She was the kindest person I’ve ever met in my life with the sweetest voice I’ve ever heard. She has left a beautiful mark in this world.

“ She was the eternal optimist. Always put others first. Loved having visitors and talking on the phone, 70s-80s country music, BBQs, hamburgers and diet coke, drawing, christmas, watching old movies with popcorn, and family and friends. We miss her so already. -- mitch/sue

“ Life will break you. Nobody can protect you from that, and being alone won't either, for solitude will also break you with its yearning. You have to love. You have to feel. It is the reason you are here on earth. You have to risk your heart. You are here to be swallowed up. And when it happens that you are broken, or betrayed, or left, or hurt, or death brushes too near, let yourself sit by an apple tree and listen to the apples falling all around you in heaps, wasting their sweetness. Tell yourself that you tasted as many as you could.
~Louise Erdrich

(Book: The Painted Drum)

Today an apple for you my dear friend Liz. I can hear your laugh in my head, I can see your smile, you always made me feel joy in your presence. You were sunshine and rainbows and all the sappy stuff people like to believe doesn't exist. Godspeed! He has plans for you. You will make one hell of an angel.

“ Mom, you taught me so much in my life from a child to a woman. Thank you for all of your wisdom and I'm so glad that God picked me to be your daughter. I am forever proud that I had a beautiful mom with the best spirit that I can hold onto and instill in my daughter. You taught me well.
