“ Brad and family, I was unable to come to Lois,s visitation. I just wanted to let you know that I was thinking about and praying for you. It is such a hard thing to do to bury your last parent. It is an alone feeling. But just think she is finally with Terry and Alonzo. Plus, she is with my mom and dad. Probably won't be long before they will be playing cards. The picture of her was such a good one. I can just hear her saying Sissy this or that. She always called me Sissy. In fact you all did. I am very lucky to have had all of you as close family friends. In my thoughts, Elaine (Smith) Meininger
