“ As a high school classmate, I will always remember Lorraine as a real lady. Gentle, beautiful, lots of laughter. She and her sweetheart Walter, who knew at an early age they were meant to be together. I'm sure all those who were a part of her life are better people because of her. Peace be with you Walter and her twin Louis.

“ My aunt Lorraine has always been very special to me. I have the greatest memories of staying with her and uncle Walter as a child. I remember light fixtures, window treatments, porches, toys, surrounding buildings and icecream trucks in the street. I remember our walks a few blocks away to St Mary's Church on sunny days. I remember how happy she always seemed to be and how she loved watching my sisters and I. As we grew older and moved away, Michelle and Mike came along and answered all her prayers. I always looked forward to our annual visits which always included lots of board games with laughter and competitive fun. The biggest thing I will always remember about her is the love she always showed to everyone around her. I love you and miss you aunt Lorraine.

Love,

“ Aunt Lorraine was a pure joy to know and love. She was a vibrant and truly beautiful person. I have many happy memories of growing up as her niece. There was always lots of us kids running around and she was always right there with us sharing the fun. Aunt Lorraine was a devout Catholic and lived her faith with gentle grace and ease. I will miss you very much. Your spirit and happy memories will always be in my heart. Enjoy eternity with Jesus in heaven. I'm coming too in God's good time. Love you forever, Diane Hesse.
