“ Dear Doug, Darla, and families,

I was saddened to read of Lyle's passing in the Telegraph this morning. I always enjoyed being around both of your parents when we were all a lot younger :). Losing a parent is never easy at any time in your life under any circumstances. The passage of time and your memories help with the void you feel and keeps him alive for you. He will be missed.

I will watch for the graveside services and plan to attend.

*Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers,
