“ Besides conversations at church, my wife and I would happen to sit by the Weinmans at a church-organized dinner at a local restaurant more often than expected. We learned to appreciate them as spiritual people. Marianne would speak what was interesting and edifying and could fill a social conversation void. Both were quite the Christian example.

“ My mother Clara Hicks did her hair for years. Marianne was such a sweet woman. I know my mom cared about her very much. Marianne made my little girl a pair of roller skates that she had knitted for my daughters doll. My daughter loved them! I enjoyed talking to her when we were at the shop at the same time. She was very special and kind and will be missed.
