“ As a beloved neighbor and truly missed. We looked forward to seeing Mark walking through the neighborhood.

I see his house from mine and we called him.

Tomahawk Mark but I do not know why. Yes, I told my sister when we were going out for a concert. Oh look. This man is my neighbor and isn't he so cool. He glides by with a smile and an inner glow. We smiled and waved and he smiled back.

I said oh Katy. He just glides by like he has skis and he goes out for his walks whenever the weather allows and she agreed how nice it is to see the people are out and about and staying as safe as possible.

The pandemic has been extremely hard on us all and we are divided but we must always try to keep ourselves safe. So the stress hits us all and then we go cry or sing or dance.

We all grieve for our loss of seeing him yet we understood and do understand his longing to cross over and the fears we have concerning death sickness diseases.

Deepest Sympathies to Marks Family. We are all praying for you and please know we all cherished Mark. May you be surrounded in the coming days with comfort from us over here on Gilham Avenue with the knowledge that he is truly missed and a beautiful soul.

*Sincerely,
Teri Jordan*
