“ She was the most amazing women I know. She always put her family first. The love she had for Bobby, Michael and Lindsay was endless. I miss her so much. She was my best friend.

“ It was in September 1969, Kathy was workin at the Bright Spot on Broadway in Alton. I was returning to Fort Lenordwood in Missouri. I pulled up and walked in, (she hadn't seen me in quite a little while) I simply said Hi Kathy. She looked at me like who the heck are you. The last time she seen me I had hair down to my shoulders, of course I being in the Army I looked totally different, it took her a while and she remembered. We became real friends after that, a friendship that lasted 55 years. I will truly miss this lady.
