“ My husband and I were just reminiscing over a sticky bun how much we used to love chatting with Mary and Mike at First Stop. So sorry to hear of her passing. She was a lovely lady who made a mark on us with just those short Saturday morning interactions- I can't imagine how much she is missed by those who knew her more intimately.

“ My sincerest sympathy to Mike, Corey, and Claire/Nico on Mary's passing. Mary was such a wonderful person- always kind, calm, and positive in her thoughts and actions. I enjoyed working with Mary when she worked in the school district and later visiting First Stop Bake Shop! I'm so sorry to be out of town for Mary's services and wish I could be there to give you all a hug in person. I pray for peace and comfort to you all knowing that Mary is now resting in the loving arms of Jesus. May she watch over you all and bring a smile to your face as you think of your precious memories of her.
