“ Mary E was my mother's cousin and a dear girl - her verve and sparkle fit a woman born on the 4th of July! She, my mother, (Cleo Donahue Swanson), and my aunt (Eileen Donahue Berg) grew up together in alton, where I was also born. mary E kept me apprised of family news every year at Christmas and shared her warmth with all. she will be in my heart always!

“ It is never easy to say goodbye when there is no more hello's to follow. Your journey is complete and your reward is at hand. Your memory is always in our hearts and of the many hearts you have touched. As long as we have this you are not really gone but just relocated. Our next hello will be on the other side and on that side there will be no more goodbyes.
