“ This world is a lesser place without Michael in it. However, his infectious smile, his lightening wit and his unfailing love for his entire family shall carry on for eternity. Pam and I are so saddened as is anyone who was lucky enough to call him friend!!! A better one never lived. Our sincerest condolences to the entire Wittman family. All our love, Dick and Pam Morris

“ Such sad news of the passing of Mike! When me and my wife first moved to Illinois, Mike was one of the first to befriend us and welcome us. He showed unconditional care and concern for our wellbeing and made sure that we wanted for nothing. This unconditional love and support for us made us feel at home and gave us a new perspective on the world. Roxanne and Mike showered my entire family with love and support. He always gave and never wanted anything in return other than to have an everlasting friendship. My heart is broken and he will truly be missed but he left a lifetime of loving, caring memories that will forever be imbedded in our lives. Much love and prayers to Roxanne and their family. We pray for strength and peace during your time of bereavement. God Bless!

“ My heart goes out to Roxanne and family. Hurts deeply to learn of Mike’s passing. I am Otis and Essie’s daughter Shalina, Mike and Roxanne’s neighbor. I remember when my children and I were displaced because of Hurricane Harvey flooding our home in Houston TX 2017. Mike and Roxanne brought so many toys and gifts for us, I can never forget how selfless they were and I will forever cherish them for that. Such a blessing to us.

Sending lots of love and strength to you Roxanne 🌻 I cannot imagine your broke heart. May God comfort you and your family!
