“ To Gene and all the Wigger family,

I was so sorry to hear of your loss. My dad was also at Rosewood for a while and shared many dinners with your dad. Please know that my thoughts are with you.

“ I played a lot of golf and drank beer with Morris and enjoyed every minute of it. I hate to see him go.

“ A most honorable man, this Socrates, this dichotomy of character, our most beloved, Morris Wigger. If wishes were horses...

The memories of his best deeds shall live. We shall try to obliterate the other memories. It was I who loved him, Brutus.
