

Nancy Ann Clark

January 10, 1967 - September 22, 2025

Nancy Ann Clark, 58, died at 9:09 p.m. on Monday, September 22, 2025 at Alton Memorial Hospital. She was born January 10, 1967 in Alton, the daughter of Judy Ann (Denham) Wigger (Kenneth) of Godfrey and the late David Clark. Nancy worked as a mail carrier with the Godfrey Post Office for many years. Nancy was an accomplished sketch artist. She loved music, concerts, driving down the River Road and baking for her family. Her greatest joy in life was her son, and her grandchildren were the light of her life. On October 14, 2018 in Alton, she married Brian Hancock, and he survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Sonja Main (David) of South Roxana, Tori McKinnon of Kansas City, MO, two sons, Erik Clark (Michaela) of Godfrey, Joshua Hancock (Jessica) of Wood River, eight grandchildren, Benjamin, Sebastian, Damien, Braydon, Serenity, Konor, David Jr. and Quintin her three brothers, John Clark, Steve Clark and David Wigger and her sister, Karen Beebe. Besides her father, she was preceded in death by her brother, Tony Clark. Visitation will be Saturday, September 27, 2025 from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon at Gent Funeral Home in Alton. “ Nancy was our mail carrier and we loved her. She was so friendly and thoughtful, and she went above and beyond to ensure that we got our mail and packages in good condition. We really missed her when she quit coming, and wondered what had happened to her. She was, and still is, a beautiful soul. I will be praying for comfort and peace for her family as they go through this time of loss.
