“ Nancy and I grew up together in Smyrna, GA, and became especially close in high school. We shared much in common and enjoyed many hours of talking about college plans and our dreams of Christian service. Our shared faith was a strong bond between us. Our adult lives carried us away from one another, and our contact was infrequent. We, thankfully, reconnected in 2014 and shared a precious visit and meal together. Tim and Larry, the hearts of so many are deeply saddened at the loss of Nancy...she's blessing heaven today.

“ To my sister Nancy,

Growing up with you we would occasionally have our little disagreements and fights, but I guess that's normal between a brother and a sister. You being older than me I guess you always wanted to teach me different things and that you did! You also listen to me, I could ask or talk to you about almost anything and you would keep it to yourself especially if I didn't want Mother to know.

I'm so glad you were able to go with me on that road trip out west in 1991; we really saw a lot of God's creation and beauty. That trip really brought us closer together!

I will miss those phone calls when I'm driving to dinner going to or from the buffet! I love you and will really miss you but I know I will be with you one day!

I Praise God for you!

*Love,
Your little brother Larry*

Nancy was a loving cousin who as a child would always find a way to get her brother Larry and I in trouble when we visited our grandparents. We all had so much fun as kids and I will miss her. RIP Nancy and I will see you in Heaven. I love you, your older cousin Jimmie.

“ Nancy was a wonderful and very loving person. We were childhood friends. She has always been friendly, caring and always had a beautiful smile. My prayers go out to the family. I take comfort in knowing we will see her again.
