“ Brenda, I can't imagine your loss. I know how excited you were for your son to come home for his visit before he was to go serve his country. I know that God will be with you every step of the way, just call on him. You will see your son again one day and then it will be forever in a beautiful place. Nathan, I have known your mother since she was a little girl. Watch over her, your sister and dad.

“ My memory: Everytime that Nathan would cross my path, he was always sweet, polite and respectful.

To the parents: My heart goes out to each of you. I know Nathan will be missed. My words may not be comforting, but I know the Words of God can and will comfort you if you ask for that comfort and understanding. I will keep you in my thoughts and I will pray for your family. May God walk and stand beside each of you as you walk through this difficult journey. Love always. Chitquita

“ I did not know you young man, although I went to school with your mother, Brenda. I come here offering up prayers to our Lord to keep your soul and grant your parents serenity until you are all united again in heaven. The writings of you life indicate you were a wonderful young man who was loved. Watch over your dear mother. Peace to all of you. Julie
