“Hearing of Nathan passing saddened my heart. I member him joyously interacting with his cousins and Mowers family at family dinners. Always a smile. So very sorry. Sending prayers of peace and comfort. Aunt Sharon Montgomery and family.

“Nathan, as we called him, was a very outgoing young man in his youth and teen years. He enjoyed visiting when i went on school business to the IL School for the Blind & Visually Impaired in Jacksonville. He will be missed. May his soul rest in eternal peace. Love, Aunt Pam & Uncle Dan.
