Nina served the Lord through example, raising her family to know and love Jesus. She taught Sunday School and was well known for making her Sunday School visitations on her motorcycle. While Nina will be missed by her family, friends, caregivers, and all who were fortunate enough to know her, she plans to see everyone again in heaven. Romans 10:9 promises that "if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Nina's hope was in the Lord most high Jehovah-Elyon.

“ My heart is heavy! Nina was not only a good friend but always went out of her way to befriend every new person to visit our church. She was sure to serve them spaghetti then a friendly game of dominoes. Her different rules for dominoes we call "Nina's Rules". Those rules have been taught throughout the US and abroad. My condolences Rob.
