“ Norma was a wonderful lady. Met her when I first got married and what a wonderful friend she was to me. She was there for me when I had my first child and taught me so much about raising children. She had 3 and I had just 1 at the time but from what she taught me then I carried it on to my others 3 children.

She had a heart of gold and was someone I respected for how she lived. I am sorry for her daughters but they are very much like their mom. Their brother just passed away and so this last month has been very hard on them. Girls you have your mom and dad plus brother Paul watching over you. Keep them in your heart always.
