“ Phil was church secretary in 1980s, faithful member to the last, good buddy, we chatted on phone monthly in recent years. His big adventure was Salt Lake City. A gentle soul, loved working at various agencies in Alton area. We used to lunch at Block's & Village Inn. Will miss him a lot! -- Pastor Terry

“ I met Phil many years ago when we both volunteered at Heritage Days in Godfrey. We both worked taking money at the gate, in costumes. I also saw him at Church dinners and other places. We exchanged Christmas cards from then on. I noticed that I didn't get a card this Christmas. Phil was a very nice guy and I will miss him.

“ Phil was such a caring soul. We felt lucky that he would watch our cats when we traveled. May your soul rest forever in the bliss that you deserve, Phil.
