“ Mr. Fitzgerald was always a friendly, hard-working, family man. My last memory of him was seeing him working, not all that long ago, at his desk. I owe him the blessing of the old "Ryrie-Fitzgerald house" in Middletown Alton, IL, which I bought from him in July 1999, when the house had just turned 100 years old. The house and the memories he shared of it have brought great joy to the family, and I know it was a home that he enjoyed with his family from the 1960's to the 1990's. A pious, family man who is missed by many!

“ Mr. Fitzgerald was a good friend of the family, and often at our home. When I was young and attending St. Patrick's Elementary, I would often walk home with my brothers and sister. One day, Mr. Fitzgerald saw me walking home alone and offered me a ride, which I accepted. When my mother asked me how I got home, I told her the "Your friend with the white hair" picked me up. Of course I was in big trouble for getting in a car with someone I didnt know the name, but Emmett got a big kick out of the story.

*So sorry to see him pass, but what a reward he has waiting for him!
Sympathy to all the Fitzgeralds.*

“ Emmett, I will miss you. Always coming to Mass dressed like a real gentleman. Kind and pleasant always. I remember you often read Fulton Sheen's "Life of Christ". I pray that now you see the Lord Jesus face to face and experience the fullness of joy in His Heavenly Kingdom!

“ Dear Fitzgerald family,
R.Emmet Fitzgerald, Esquire, was a lawyer’s lawyer and counsel to many, both rich and poor. His words and arguments were given the greatest of weight by other lawyers and judges. I dealt with him professionally twice , when I was assistant Attorney General for eminent domain and when I was Madison County State’s Attorney. These cases gave us time to talk at length about others in the legal profession, including some of my predecessors. He was a remarkable storyteller! He also told me that he thoroughly enjoyed exchanging stories with my late father while counting collection money after Masses at old St. Patrick’s .
Emmett was named Robert Emmett after the great Irish Statesman. He became a local statesman for the area’s Catholic community on many matters.
One of his most noteworthy achievements was to trade Catholic support for a bond issue for the construction of West Junior High and Public School Stadium in exchange for Marquette High School’s right to use the stadium rent free for football games. This was no mean feat, as past politicians have told me, because Emmett had to deal with the imperious JB Johnson, who was Alton superintendent of schools. However, Dr. Johnson badly needed Catholic votes for his bond issue and Emmett got his deal. The Catholic community listened to Emmett and voted for higher taxes at that time to make this happen. The bond issue passed and the result has been a great benefit to Marquette and also to the greater Alton Godfrey community ever since.
Emmett and Joanie raised a faith-filled, wonderful family. Emmett leaves a rich legacy of strong family and professional competence. May all the angels guide him into paradise and at his coming may all the martyrs receive him. May they lead him safe into the holy city of Jerusalem. May the choirs of angels sing in joy to welcome him, and with Lazarus, who once was so poor, may he find rest for all eternity!
In sympathy,
Bill and Anna Haine.

“ We will certainly miss our neighbor, Papa Fitz. He provided free legal services for our adopted children and many years of kindness as our neighbor. I also enjoyed playing Santa Claus for his children for several years. (I hope I didn't give anything away.) The world would be much better if there were more Papa Fitzs. The Thies family
