“ I had worked with Ralph at Marks Mortuary (1983 - 1985); I remember him always being in good cheer, always smiling. I counted him among my closest friends, but unfortunately, over the decades since those early days, we had lost touch with each other. Learning of his passing saddens me greatly. I pray you find comfort in these dark days without his charming smile.

“ I went all the way through St. Ambrose & Marquette with Ralph. He was a great guy, and always a lot of fun. I did not realize Ralph had experienced so much since we all graduated. What a list of accomplishments! My thoughts and prayers go out to Mr. Nailor and all of Ralph's family and friends. May God comfort you all in the loss of one so loved.
