“ *Dear Fleming Family,
Words cannot express the sadness when I heard of Randy's passing. Jeanne and I send our deepest sympathy and our hearts go out to your entire family in this time of sorrow. I have wonderful memories growing up in the neighborhood with Randy. His love of music was extraordinary. When he got his first Casio keyboard, he was so excited to play! I remember running across the street right after he called to tell me about it. Except for my brother, Mitch, I cannot think of a bigger Yes fan and admirer of their keyboardist, Rick Wakeman.
Our sincerest condolences,
Murray and Jeanne Fryman*
