“ I met Ray over 30 years ago as a co-worker for a small welding supply company in St Louis, Welder & Industrial. Many years later, and a few different welding/gas supplier employers for myself, our paths crossed again back in 2006 at Airgas in St Louis. Walking down the hallway the 1st few days of my new employment, there was Ray. Standing down that hallway, with a surprised look on his face and a great big SMILE while he said, "are you following me lady?????" It was nice to see an old friend amongst all the strangers. From that day on, Ray would always have that SMILE, even when he didn't feel well, he was still grinning. Ray is probably a greeter in heaven, welcoming in all the old welding supply faces with that beautiful SMILE of his...RIP Ray, gone but never forgotten ;-)

“ I have a lot of good memories hanging out with Ray and Timmie when we were young. Lots of hunting and adventures in the woods. Both are always on my mind and are missed.
