Dateline: Godfrey

Ray Luken, after living a full and rich life for 96 years, died Monday, December 12, 2022 at his home in Godfrey with his wife Jan at his side. Ray was the third son of William and Lucy Luken born on a farm outside of Gillespie in 1926. Ray and his mother moved from the farm to Gillespie, then Alton, after the death of Ray's father. Immediately after graduating from Alton High School, he enlisted in the Navy and served in the Pacific Theater on a destroyer escort until the end of WWII. Returning home after the war and thanks to the GI Bill, Ray attended the University of Illinois, majoring in marketing. He was a member of Delta Chi fraternity. While attending there, he met his first wife, Marjorie Harrison of Paris, IL. They were married over 50 years until her death in 2001. After college he returned to Alton where he worked for his brother, Ralph Luken at Luken Pontiac (now Quality Pontiac) and Luken Insurance. Ray eventually bought the insurance business from his brother. Luken Insurance became the Ray Luken Agency. After many years in the insurance business he turned the business over to his son, Jeff. In 2003, Ray married Janet (Barnett) Skinner of Godfrey and she survives. Those that knew Ray, knew he was an avid fisherman who enjoyed many exceptional fishing expeditions until health issues at 93 curtailed his fishing trips. He also enjoyed hunting, travel, cooking, reading, and was always learning something new. A lifelong Lutheran, Ray was a long-time member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Alton, then Faith Lutheran Church in Godfrey. He also was an honorary member of the Alton Motorboat Club, and many years at the Alton-Wood River Sportsmen's Club. Ray is survived by a daughter, Gail Bidle (Dean) of Knoxville, TN and a son, Jeff Luken (Carla) of Chautauqua.
