“ The Weaver

*My Life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.*

*Of times He weaveth sorrow
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the under side.*

*Not til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.*

*He knows, He loves, He cares,
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those Who leave the choice with Him.*

Just wanted you to know you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My thought and prayers are with all of the Botterbush family. I had the pleasure of chatting with Ray a bit on FB about a week ago as to how things were different in the neighborhood we both grew up in. Thank you Ray for everything you have done in the community and also for my dad back in the day. Say Hi to him for me. Many prayers going up !!!

“ To the family of Ray Botterbush, we would like to say that Ray was a very compassionate, generous, gentle, caring and kind man. He always made his point and his concerns on his own beliefs and was a very honest man. We will all miss him.

“ I was shocked to hear of Ray's passing and although a great many people in the community will be ever affected by the loss of such a good man, he has left this world better than it was before he came into it. Ray thank you for everything you have done by selflessly serving others.

“ My wife, Jay Dee, and I extend our sincere condolences to Ray's family. I remember Ray's birth as we lived next door to Junior and Dorothy on Elm Street- it seems like only yesterday. He brought great joy to his parents, as he did for the rest of his life with his willingness to help others in so many ways. It seems right that the Lord called Ray to his side while he was sharing a Boy Scout camping trip with two of his nephews. All of the family loved Ray and he will be greatly missed. “ Ray was great inspiration in Boy Scouts. Also a great friend. The soul would have no rainbows if the eyes had no tears. He was always a great rainbow in many lives.
