“ On the first day of Freshman year, in August of 1998, 3rd hour science with Mrs. Braden, a red haired girl who looked as nervous as I felt, came to my table and asked if she could sit with me. We made small chat but every day after we would talk about the most random things. Months later, I moved a 1/2 mile from her. We were hanging out daily then. Becky has been there throughout every good and bad situation, for 20+ years. I will never have another person, in my lifetime, that will come close to the person my best friend is. I'll see her again and it does my heart wonders knowing my son now is with her and really does get hugs and kissed every day.
