“ My deepest sympathy to you and your family, Janice. I have met you a couple times out with Rex but haven't met the kids. He always talked about the boys when we worked together in the riggers. Very proud of them.

I always enjoyed working with Rex. He made the day go by faster with his humor and stories. Just a great friend and I will miss him.

“ Though I didn't know Rex for the years my mother & father have...the few short years I knew him I grew to adore him. I had heard stories while growing up about Rex & when I started working with him at the bus company I quickly found out he was indeed a guy you couldn't help but love. He always made me smile...always made me laugh! He was awesome & will certainly be missed! I knew my dad wouldn't take this news well & when he called from the hospital this morning my mother had prepared herself to tell him however he had already read the paper. My dad...like Rex is "the tough guy" but this morning and for a long time after he will morn...Rex was his buddy. We all send our deepest sympathies. I'm so sorry for your loss. Rex will be remembered with smiles. God bless you all! You are in our hearts and our prayers. *hugs*
