“ *My memories are full of my dad with the constant need and urge to run around visiting family members early morn coffee visits to late night checks he loved to love his family & friends& always welcomed all to stop by for a short visit or a long project eager to help or lend a hand in all the years with ups&downs in his life even being out numbered by way more wrongs than rights until his last conversation of life still always mentioned the needs of others staying up worrying thinking of ways to make all better even willing to fight with the enemy just for a friend he loved his family he was always the man willing to bend for need of others with no expectations for he knew all along is what it the means&feels in life to really have a true friend...He loved beyond , along time ago.. “ Dearest Carla, I will never forget how much Rick helped me and my daughter. He was so kind to help us find that terrific riding mower and helped us get it to her house. Rick was a kind person and will be greatly missed. Praying for you and Terri.
