Bob and Jean enjoyed camping, swimming and boating during the years when their children were growing up. The family spent many vacations at Lake of

After their children were grown, Bob and Jean enjoyed many years of square dancing and round dancing. They traveled to different states to participate in dance exhibitions.

Bob was an enthusiastic St. Louis Cardinals fan and enjoyed watching them on TV and going to games with his daughter and granddaughter at Busch stadium. His granddaughter Sarah treated him to a Cardinal/Cubs game at Wrigley field for his 84th birthday. He loved playing Sudoku and reading western and mystery novels.

Bob had been on hospice for close to 2 years after a fall in April of 2021. His daughter called him the energizer bunny as he just kept hanging in there after he bounced back from his initial decline. His wife of 73 years passed away October 23, 2022, and he moved to Florida with his daughter and her husband. He was placed on hospice in Florida. While in Florida, Bob enjoyed taking his scooter to the community center to get library books. He would pop over to the Billiards Hall and watch the "younger" guys play pool. He enjoyed making new friends, going out to eat and talking to people. He especially enjoyed telling his stories of work and play at luncheons for people who were from Illinois. He was happy living in Florida and died peacefully with his daughter by his side.
