“ There is not enough space to tell 60 years of memories of my best friend-brother. In 1961 two snout nosed kids met behind Thomas Jefferson school to have a rumble. We decided to give our gangs a rest and play instead. From then on we spent the majority of our waking moments together until he went into the Air Force. He came home and soon got remarried to Gloria. We were back together again with one difference, I now had a big sister along with new nieces, nephews and a ton more of love. RKP is gone but the love he gave to all will endure generations. The following lyrics from Bread sum up how I feel:

*You sheltered me from harm
Kept me warm, kept me warm
You gave my life to me
Set me free, set me free
The finest years I ever knew
Were all the years I had with you*

*And I would give anything I own
Give up my life, my heart, my home
I would give everything I own
Just to have you back again*

*You taught me how to love
What it's of, what it's of
You never said too much
But still you showed the way
And I knew from watching you
Nobody else could ever know
The part of me that can't let go*

*And I would give anything I own
Give up my life, my heart, my home
I would give everything I own
Just to have you back again*

*Is there someone you know
You're loving them so
But taking them all for granted?
You may lose them one day
Someone takes them away
And they don't hear the words you long to say*

*I would give anything I own
Give up my life, my heart, my home
I would give everything I own
Just to have you back again
Just to touch you once again*

*Until we meet again
Love you,
TKG*

Oh How I wish I could hear Ron & Ted arguing about different subjects just one more time!! Gloria and I just looked at each and rolled our eyes. He will be sorely missed. We had many fun times together. Rest in peace Ron. Dear God, give strength to his family to get through this sad time.
