“ *I remember passing her house coming home from school and Aunt Rosie yelling at me to straighten up, After all these years, I can still hear her when I catch myself slouching. She will always be with me. My condolences to the kids and family
The old guard is gone now and they will be missed.

“ I was reminiscing with friends on Saturday about Halloween, One of my favorite memories being a kid was trick or treating at Aunt Rosie's house and getting one of her homemade popcorn balls. And today I am saddened to learn of her passing. My warmest condolences to her children and their families.

“ (Psalm 90:10) The span of our life is 70 years, Or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; They quickly pass by, and away we fly.
The footnote says "because of special mightiness".
It is wonderful to know that even though we die we are still in God's memory and when He is ready he will wake us up.
Please accept my sincere condolences.
