“ *To Violet and Susan and Rhonda and Barb and the rest of the family, I just want to say that it was a joy to have know Ruby and to have had her in my Sunday School Class. She always brought a smile to my face. She was very open and honest and always told it like it is. I loved her spunk, even when she wasn't feeling all that well. She will surely be missed. However, I know that she is now having herself a good old time up in heaven, no longer sick or confused. Praise the Lord for that. Take comfort in knowing that she loved the Lord and though we will not see her for a while, we will all be together someday. Celebrate her life and remember the memories. Love you all! “ Grandma Brown well if you knew her you loved her. As a grandma in law she loved me as her own granddaughter. She always thought she needed to buy a kiss. But in truth my kids would give her a kiss without taking money. And my laughter is her teeth she once said a dog chewed her false teeth. And they never did fit her.. So Grandma Brown you now have a brand new set that fit. And you can chew all the whitmans candy boxes as many as you want . Share one with my mom she loved you on earth and now she has you in heaven. Enjoy home you deserve the BEST earth hasn't always been nice to you.. Well now we all get to be jealous of your new home.. Love Chris (grandson) Tammie (wife) grandchildren Branden Christopher 17 and Reagan Christine 15 your tassing will be missed telling us .. "WELL YOU BETTER HURRY UP GET MARRIED HAVE KIDS..! Cause I am dying I ready for heaven..) well your blessed to be home ❤️ Forever will be missed!! Xoxo
