“ IMy dear Sandy, now the tears come that it has hit home that you are gone. I regret that I did not try harder to find you again. We had so many years of laughs and long horseback rides, you were always there for me and helped me thru many rough times. Such a wonderful friend! God has green pastures and your beloved Black, Tippy, Dudley and all your furry friends to love again. I hope we will find each other on the sunny side of Heaven and ride the trails laughing once again.

“ So many memories and they're all good. For the twenty plus years that I had known you, you always hsd a smile and kind words for me, even through your own pain, a quality we all could stand to have. Thank you for all the good advise you gave me over so many cups of coffee:). I could possibly write a novel from all the conversations we all had. Always and forever in our Hearts. See ya later Sandy.

“ I will always remember how Sandy loved my scrambled eggs... then she got on her ice cream kick. It was so funny. It had to be Ben and Jerrys nothing else would do...and I will forever hear her voice and the distinct way she yelled "Looooonda". I will love and miss her very much she was very interesting to talk to. R.I.P. Sandy..... You are free honey.

“ I love you Sandy K. And I'm going to miss you so much. You always had a way of making me laugh even when my life was falling apart, and lets be honest, at one point that's all my life was doing. You are a beautiful person with an even more beautiful soul. I hope you can finally find some peace now that you are no longer in pain. My life was made a better place because you were in it. Thank you for being you...
