“ My sincere condolences to Shirley's family. I got to know Shirley only about 8 months ago. I enjoyed our joking and talking with each other at dinner. She was an amazing woman and loved her sense of humor. Her dinner girls will sure miss her.

“ I so enjoyed ‘Aunt Shirley’. She was not my aunt but that’s what I called her. I enjoyed the many lunches at Kentucky Fried Chicken in Highland when I would be helping Jennie Alice get to her dentist appointment then to have lunch with her sister. And Aunt Shirley would bring Calhoun county peaches to Springfield every summer. I loved her spunk and the ziplining. Wow. She was a great lady!
