“ Stacy was a sweetheart and my dear friend. We met in junior high and I have so many fond memories of time with Stacy over the past several decades. Stacy had a smile that would light up a room and her laugh was infectious.

She once told me "Smile, give a compliment to a stranger..."...that was in line with how she lived life. Another time she told me that her car doors didn't work, thus the windows were down. I fell for it and dutifully crawled through the window only to hear Stacy laughing once I got in...nothing wrong with the doors...just something to keep us laughing. I could go on and on about my wonderful, fun, happy memories.

It is hard to imagine life without my friend. Sending my condolences to all of Stacy's family and friends.

Heaven just gained the sweetest angel!
