“ The light has gone out my life and the world. A treasure has been lost and life can never be the same. I take solace in the knowledge that she was Safely Home before my first tear fell. I knew someday I would feel the loss she felt upon the passing of those closest to her, but there was no preparing for it. There are no words to describe it. I am only able to endure it by shouldering her earthly burdens and finishing those tasks that may be finished, knowing that she loved me so, as only a mother can. I loved her as only a devoted son can, and I hope to see her again when my time is near. Until then, she will be with my always in my memories.

“ Sue Johnson was a loving mother, grandmother, and devoted wife. Foremost, she was devoted to Jesus Christ and he was her everything. Mom shared her faith with her family and was always reaching out to help others. She was the arms and hands of her Lord. She passed away peacefully knowing that she would be met by her Lord and she was without a doubt. Mom was the best mother you could have and a devoted friend. I will miss her until I see her again. Mom, I love you. Deb
