“ Our family was blessed to have her in our lives. In the last year, the cousins have celebrated lunch with her and it has brought us back together as a family unit. She was a God filled woman and always had her family first in her life. R. I.P.

“ For several years, T. Ann was the sole survivor of all her siblings, including my mom. During those years, she was our matriarch, especially for many of her nieces. Her presence was among the reasons some of us returned to this area after many years in other parts of the country. Even while wishing for more time with T. Ann, I cherish the monthly lunches we shared with her over the past year. As one of her nieces on learning of her passing observed, she centered us, pulling us not only to her but to each other—her lasting legacy.

I hope she realized that legacy was her gift to us and that knowing she brought us together comforted her in those final days when the physical presence of extended family members was forbidden due to the pandemic. May her memory be a blessing to Charlie, their descendants, and her extended family members.
