

Terrance Wayne Thielman

March 16, 1973 - June 6, 2026

Terrance Wayne Thielman, 53, of Alton, IL passed away at 4:41 pm, Saturday, June 6, 2026 at his residence. He was born on March 16, 1973 in Superior, WI to the late Richard and Linda (Shaver) Thielman. He was a mechanic. He is survived by three daughters, Kimberly Thielman, Sabrina Thielman and Casondra Thielman; two grandchildren, BrayLynn and Bentley two brothers, Bruce, Thielman and Robert Bergson and a sister, Valerie Velasco. Besides his parents, he is preceded in death by a sister, Christine Thielman. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date in Wisconsin.

Tribute Wall

“ My condolences to Terry's family and friends. We all grew up together in Superior..and sometimes hung out at the parks playing tag or just hanging out. May Terry rest in peace!!

Melissa Brown-Wigfall - June 09 at 02:15 AM

“ Terrace tried to help everyone he could.he was proud of his 3 daughts talked about them all the time.and the 2 grand kids.terry stayed with me and my 3 boys on and off.he was alls working on something and tryin to teach my boys how to take things apart and forget where all the pieces went.(lol jk).I remember one time when I was rocking I think Travis my youngest I was renting my mom's house sitting in the living room looking out the window.and my aunt lived across the street and then her neighbor had the empty lot next to my aunts and they had there boat there.well as I was rocking what ever son it was I seen something bubbin up in down in the boat and thought what the hell who is that playing around.so I waited a bit then I seen all this smoke like come from the boat.and then few minutes late someone crawl out of the boat and walk towards my place.well it was Terry drunk thought he was fishing.lolthere were good times and bad times.no one is perfect in this life I don't care who you are.nor better than anyone.anyone that new use new the bullshit we dealt with in life wasn't easy.terry called me quite a bit and talked to me.infact I think I was last one he talk to before passing.he called me about midnight talked for about 45 minutes or so and then said he was getting tired going to bed.and then I got a call next morning saying he passed away.and I said no bullshit I just talked to him but I know he was in lots pain and stuff with health issues.im glad his daughter step up took care of him instead of putting him in nursing home or something I'm proud of you girls that a lot of work.and I know you guys know cause you all work that kinda field.that thank you and your dad loved you guys and always expected how proud he was of you 3 and really appreciated you guys taking care of him and not putting him in one.i hope when my time comes I can't do what I need to one of kids step up or a relative that wouldn't mind helps me cause I been in that field for work and don't wanna go in one either.i been tryin to keep in touch more with the family that does talk to me and my boys.like they say tomorrow is never promised.i love and miss everyone.keep in touch and Terry rest in peace brother you will always be loved and missed.say hi to everyone up there and love them and miss them too and will see them again to.god bless you brother.

Valerie Velasco - June 08 at 09:08 PM

Im so very sorry for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. The Visger family

Lisa Visger - June 08 at 10:21 PM

CH

I Knew Linda & all the kids. We lived in the same neighborhood. Chris & Val were good friend's of mine. Terry was alway's teasing us girl's lol but he also was looking to get into some sort of mischief . I'm glad he was blessed with kids & grandkids. I'm sorry for the loss of your dad . Sending condolences to the whole family. R.I.P Terry !

Carmen Hopkins - June 08 at 11:12 PM

SS

My sincere condolences, I remember Terry well from his junior high days at Central Jr High.

Sue Smedegard - June 09 at 11:24 AM