“ Terry came into my life when he dated my older sister. On Sundays, our family would enjoy an afternoon with him when he came to eat lunch after church. He was engaging and funny and a friend to all. He treated me, the little annoying sister, with such patience and kindness and I always looked forward to having him around. He stayed in touch over the years and I always enjoyed hearing from him and having a friendly chat. He was truly a nice guy and I thank God for allowing our paths to cross. My deepest sympathies to his friends and family. Janice Corwin Ayres

“ Terry was a brother to me. He married my sister in 1969, I was only 8 years old. Over the years we shared many great memories with my family. He was a truly special and I was very privileged to have known him all these years. Heaven gained a most awesome angel!
